RE: SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITY REPORT

Dear Mayor Williams:

This report is to inform you of an investigation conducted by Special Agent Karen Meunier of this Office concerning Gregory Murray, a civilian who acted as a middleman in a bribery scheme with a former District of Columbia Office of the Chief Financial Officer employee, Lisa Johnson. Johnson was arrested on August 26, 2004, immediately terminated from employment, pled guilty, and was sentenced on July 22, 2005, to 12 months of incarceration.

On September 13, 2005, United States District Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly sentenced Murray to ten months in prison for his participation in the bribery scheme to sell D.C. driver's licenses in fraudulent names. In addition, District of Columbia Department of Parks and Recreation employee Craig Hughes, who also pled guilty in this case, was sentenced on July 22, 2005, to five months of incarceration and five months of home detention.

If you need any additional information, please feel free to call me on the number listed below or Robert G. Andary, Assistant Inspector General for Investigations, on (202) 727-1039.

Sincerely,

Charles J. Willoughby
Inspector General
